

WHY?

you should become a member of COCC?

As a Compost Professional in Colorado, it is important that you have a voice and a vote in your leading organics industry organization. Full voting membership in the Colorado Compost Council (COCC) requires membership in both our national compost association, US Composting Council (USCC), and our state material management non-profit, Recycle Colorado (RC.) The Colorado Compost Council is a state chapter of the USCC that lives within Recycle Colorado and advocates to improve composting infrastructure, end markets, product standards and policy.

THE BENEFITS OF BEING A FULL COCC MEMBER:

- A meaningful voice on policy specific to requirements and specifications of compost use and organic recovery.
- Training and career advancement opportunities
- Opportunity to network and collaborate with other compost industry leaders
- Compost specific articles and newsletters
- Updates on compost markets and best practices throughout the State of Colorado

Become a COCC Member by clicking the join button below. Click Recycle Colorado's membership link and select the Compost Council and your respective level of support under the Council Interest tab.
